

The image shows the front cover of a book. The cover is made of wood with a prominent vertical grain pattern. In the center, there is a rectangular metal plaque with a decorative border. The word "RAVELINGS" is embossed in large, bold, sans-serif capital letters on the plaque. Below the word, the year "1956" is embossed in smaller, spaced-out digits. Four decorative metal pieces, resembling stylized leaves or wings, are attached to the cover: one at the top left, one at the top right, one at the bottom left, and one at the bottom right. Each piece has several small circular holes along its length. The overall appearance is that of a vintage or antique book binding.

Where Lives Are Moulded Day By Day....

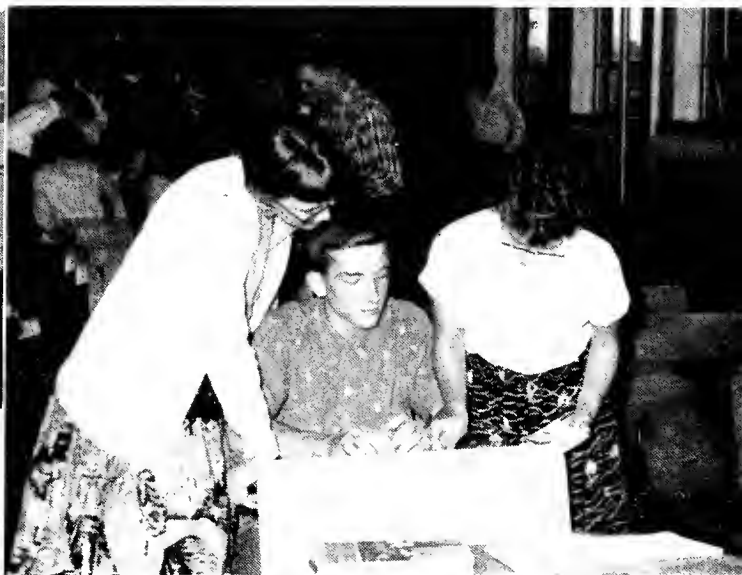

Foreword

In this, your 1956 edition of Ravelings, the staff has tried to bring to you an informal pictorial review of the past school year. In the following pages we have tried to record the things you have done and the things you have wished to do.

We realize that we have fallen short because you have done much more than we can picture. We do hope, though, that we have recorded some of the things you wish to remember always.

In Days To Come We Will Recall Old

September to May, we will have these moments to remember

... the quiet talks, the noisy fun —
the ballgame prize we almost won
... the senior trip we took in May the sadness of Commencement Day
... when other nights and other days may find us on our separate ways we will have these moments to remember.

Research Themes And Exams Made Us Worry, But Our Officers And Sponsors Reassured Us

Senior History

In September, 1952, forty-three freshmen, including two new entries, Miriam Swinger from Illinois and Robin Miller from Sidney, entered high school. The class had two parties at the Coliseum in Fort Wayne. The class was sponsored by Mr. Gerold Faudree and Mr. Wayne Dilling. The class elected as their officers the following: Jack Baker, President; Larry Jordan, Vice-President; Tom Schumaker, Secretary; Sue Richards, Treasurer, and Dorothy Lefforge, Reporter.

The following year thirty-nine ambitious pupils entered Chester High. During that year the class enjoyed two class parties at the Coliseum in Fort Wayne under the sponsorship of Mr. Scribner and Mrs. Lytle. The class elected the following as their leaders: Robin Miller, President; Carol Grossnickle, Vice-President; Sue Richards, Secretary; Larry Jordan, Treasurer, and Jane Schenkel, Reporter.

In 1954, thirty-seven juniors entered school looking forward to the many extra activities that take place during the junior year. We welcomed Theresa Lee as a new junior from Somerset. During the year we eagerly took on the responsibility of putting on a fish fry and selling at the ball games. Mr. Rowe and Mrs. VanCamp sponsored the juniors. The class gave the play "SEVENTEEN IS AWFULLY YOUNG" which Mrs. Van Camp directed. The officers for that year were: Jack Baker, President; Leo Frieden, Vice-President; Carol Grossnickle, Secretary; Bob Hapner, Treasurer; and Dorothy Lefforge, Reporter.

At last, in September of 1955, thirty-eight eager and ambitious seniors, including Rowena Carr from Rossville and Bill Kirkpatrick from Lagro, took the first step on their last lap of high school.

The class of 1956 elected the following officers: Jack Baker, President; Larry Jordan, Vice-President; Dorothy Lefforge, Secretary; Robin Miller, Treasurer; Sue Richards, Reporter. We produced a great success. "MAMA'S BABY BOY". The "Ravelings" was started under the direction of two worthy advisors, Mrs. VanCamp and Mr. Smith. Our money-making projects included the fish fry and the magazine sales drive, in which we broke previous records. Baccalaureate, Commencement, and the long-awaited senior trip ended an eventful year.

Track

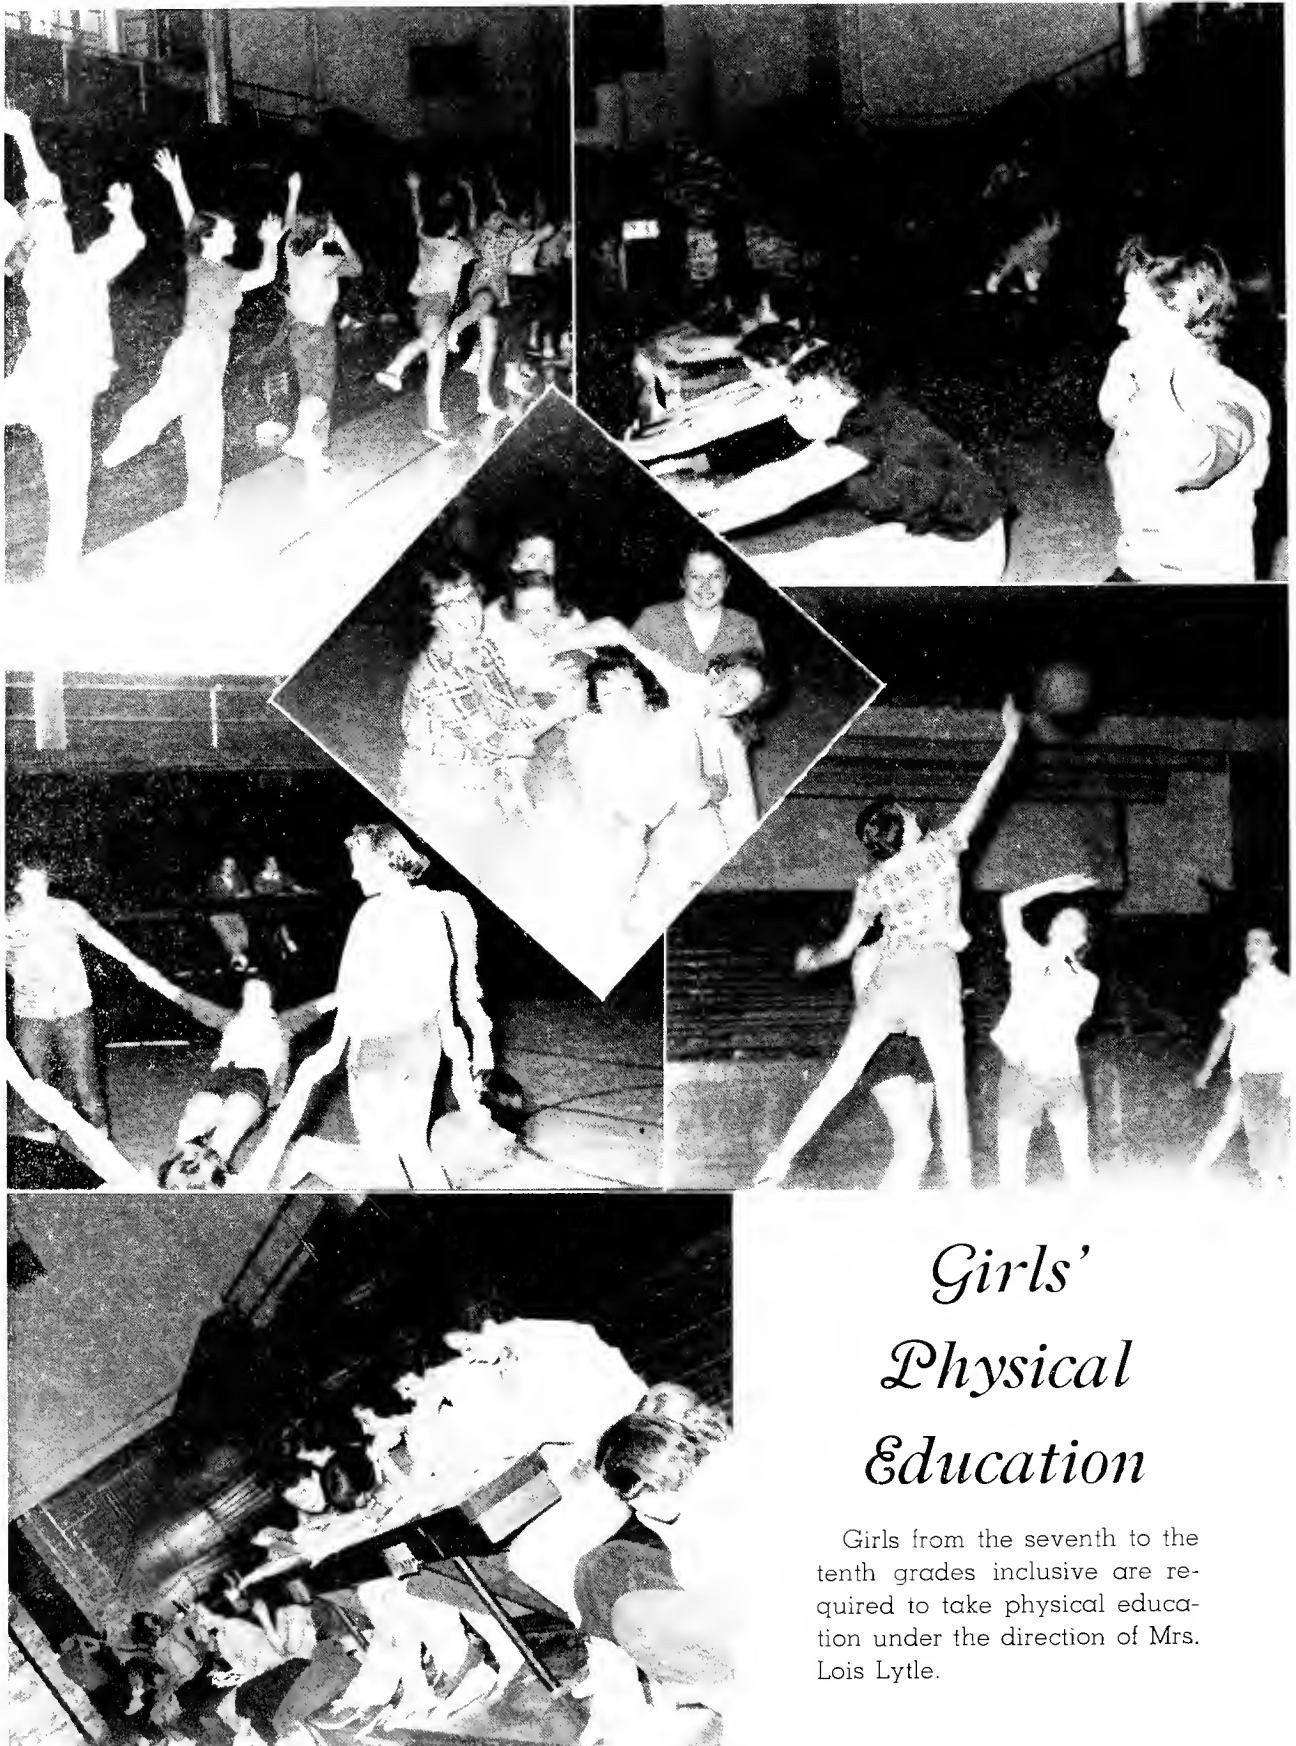

It seems only fitting that we give the 1955 track team a little recognition. Last year's team won both the Manchester Relays and the County Track Meet. With nine returning lettermen we are anticipating a good track season again this year. It may be hard for Coach "Pete" Faudree to find someone to fill the shoes of John Clark and Todd Hathaway, who were two important factors in the success of last year's team.

The 1956 schedule will provide plenty of competition. In addition to the Manchester Relays and the county meet the Chester cindermen will face such foes as South Whitley, Pierceton and Wabash.

CHESTER CHATTER AT WORK

Students are kept well informed about all scholastic, music, sports, organizational activities, convocations and social functions by the Chester Chatter.

Publishing the Chester Chatter was one of the main jobs for advanced typing students. 15 issues were distributed during the school year, approximately a paper every two weeks.

We would like to thank the many reporters who kept us well supplied with news.

Mr. Brumbaugh, Mrs. Amoss, and the staff members were responsible for making the Chatter successful. We would like to extend our sincere appreciation to them.

Senior Play

THE SENIOR PLAY IN BRIEF

Imagine the great amount of fun that is experienced when an attractive widow, nearing forty, has her eighteen-year-old son dress and pose as a boy of fourteen so she might pass as a younger woman. In turn a widower, trying to appear younger, has his seventeen-year-old daughter pose as a girl of twelve so that he might wed the widow, whom he believes to be rich. This situation leads to no end of amusing complications. The children decide to do something about these horrifying experiences. Yes, the whole family, friends and relatives, are nearly proved insane before all the problems are solved and their identities are known.

Junior Play

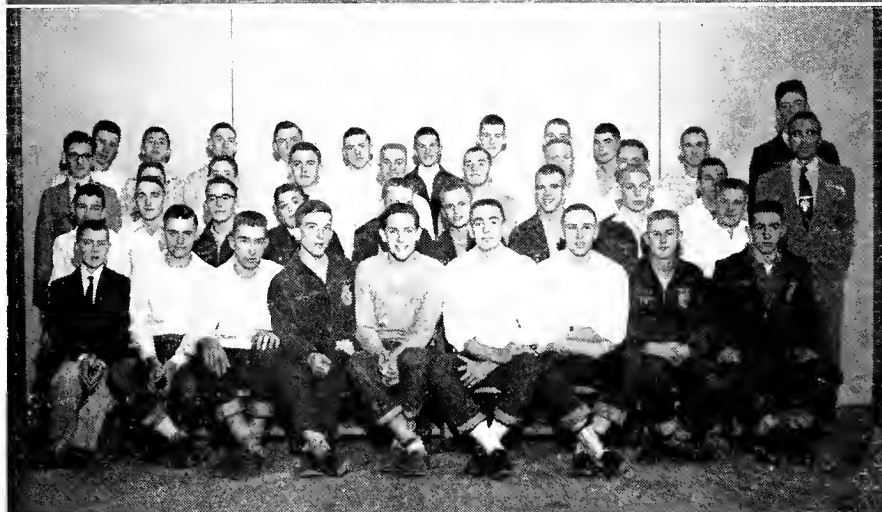

THE JUNIOR PLAY IN BRIEF

It's hard for a fellow to remain a credit to the family and at the same time keep up with a girl friend who has gone mad over celebrities. Meanwhile Jerry's home life gets more and more complicated as he tries to follow Trudy's hilarious mental "quick changes." His fantic maneuvers get the whole family into trouble, and things look pretty serious to Jerry. In despair Jerry resorts to a real "last resort" and the humorous and unexpected reversal brings this fast-paced comedy to a pleasant and satisfying conclusion.

BAND

Mr. Leckrone (known as "Leck" to us), with his superior ability and everlasting determination has led the band through many District and State Contests. Because of our director, our 66-piece band is favorably known throughout the state.

MAJORETTES

Four capable majorettes led the band in marching at games this year. Several times they performed special numbers for the crowd. All the majorettes are underclassmen.

GARDEN CLUB MEETS

Mrs. Paul House, nee Joyce Grossnickle, entertained the Garden Club, Wednesday afternoon in her home. The speaker was Miss Mary Lou Tyner, president of the Indiana State Flower Growers Association. Special guests attending were Miss Mary Ellen Snavely, professor of Typing at International Business College and Miss Theresa Lee, Certified Public Accountant of Allen County.

CHESTER SPONSORING LADIES' SEXTETT IN LYCEUM PROGRAM

Mr. Jason Smith, Principal of Chester High School, announced that the next lyceum program will be what was known several years ago as the Chester Senior Girls' Sextet. The members of the sextet were known in school days as Fanni Swihart, Dorothy Lefforge, Carol Grossnickle, Miriam Swinger, Pat Leckrone, and Sue Richards. They have put on many programs both in the United States and in Europe. They are also seen on TV over Channel 56 every evening at 6:45.

NEW TEACHERS ADDED TO CHESTER STAFF

Two new teachers to come to Chester this year are Miss Rowena Carr and Mrs. Bob Keaffaber, nee Jane Schneckel. Mrs. Keaffaber will teach in the elementary grades and Miss Carr will teach English in the upper four grades. Both ladies are graduates of Chester High School and Manchester College.

Class Will

Preamble

We, the Senior Class of Chester High School, in order to form more perfect classes in the future, give advice, and bestow upon the future classes the things that have made us outstanding as Seniors, do ordain the following will. Since our school days are near an end, we request that our desire be conscientiously fulfilled.

Article I

To the faculty, we will our good sense of humor and a memory of us that they will never forget; to the Juniors, we will the ability to change the traditions of Chester High School; to the Sophomores, we will our talent; to the Freshmen, we will our ability to look intelligent when occasion demands.

Article II

I, Jack Baker, will my love of jokes to Mary Jane Merkle with the hope that it will help her get a few laughs. I, Norman Baker, will my sixth period study hall to Carol Frieden for sleeping. I, Shelby Bechtold, will my knowledge of reprieves and pardons to the Juniors. I, Dewayne Beery, will my front seat in government to any Junior that can keep his feet from under Mr. Smith's. I, Clarence Betten, will my silence to David Reber. I, Beverly Buckingham, will my quietness to anyone who needs it. I, Rowena Carr, will my long hair to Delpha O'Neil, providing she keeps it that way. I, Jerry Clark, will my 1940 Plymouth to whoever thinks he can handle it. I, Max Cox, will my ability to skid a car around a corner to Mr. Jason Smith. I, Leo Frieden, will my ability to go steady with one girl my entire Senior year to "Doc" Hammond. I, Carol Grossnickle, will my love for clean jokes to Karen Bollinger. I, Joyce Grossnickle, will to Sandra Marshall my ability to stay out of mischief. I, Harold Hamman, will my seat in the study hall to anyone who can stand Mr. Smith's volume at announcement time. I, Bob Hopner, will my ability to keep money in my pocket to anyone who can keep it away from girls. I, Sharon Hapner, will my ability to lose my temper to my brother, Russell. I, Gene Heeter, will my hair to Mr. Owen Moore and my ability to chew gum in psychology to anyone that takes it. I, Larry Jordan, will my ability to wink at girls without blushing, to Larry Stackhouse. I, Don Judy, will my good grades in deportment to Tom Boker. I, Bill Kirkpatrick, will my courage to attempt to "blow up" the chemistry laboratory to Jim Shanahan. I, Pat Leckrone, will my meek manners and silent grin to Rachel Cook. I, Theresa Lee, will to Marty Brumbaugh my ability to talk 350 words a minute. I, Dorothy Lefforge, will 10 pounds to Beverly Buckingham. I, Barbara Meyer, will my driving ability to Mrs. Lois Lytle, also my trinkets for her car. I, Robin Miller, will to Don Judy's future off-spring, my ability to make good grades in Agriculture. I, Ralph Penrod, will my quietness to any talkative person. I, Marilyn Pratt, will my A's in deportment to my sister, Janice. I, R. J., will my seat in the study hall to anyone who can study beside Vernon Schroll. I, Sue Richards, will my position as Chester Chatter artist to any Junior who can put up with having ditto all over him. I, Dick Runkel, will my ability not to get arrested to Richard Miller. I, Jane Ann Schenkel, will my red hair and the temper that goes with it, to anyone who likes to be teased. I, Tom Schumaker, will my ability to go through a Senior year basketball season, and not have a date, to that Junior Romeo, Vernon Schroll. I, Mory Ellen Snaveley, will my natural wavy hair to my sister, Nancy. I, Fannie Swihart, will my "Gleem" smile to Joe Walls. I, Miriam Swinger, will my ability to talk about Chicago whenever possible to anyone who would cherish the thoughts as much as I. I, Mary Lou Tynor, will my height to Ann Keaffaber. I, Kendal Walter, will my Plymouth to anyone who can keep good fenders on it. I, Betty Williams, will my seat in mixed chorus to anyone who can keep it. I, Dora Young, will my brown hair to Barbara Farley.

FRIEND

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Class of 1956 expresses its appreciation to:

The business and professional people who have so generously supported our efforts in this book, Ravelings for 1956, to the Chester students, faculty, parents, and school officials who give such wonderful support to the projects of the school; and to all the friends of the school who assure the success of the many and varied activities in which the school engages.

To Mr. Hazlett of the Cron Studio for his kindness in going far beyond the call of duty in helping to make Ravelings for 1956 successful.

To Mr. Broom for his very special personal interest in the success of our book.

To the Ft. Wayne Engraving Company for the many courtesies extended.

To the Earl W. Hamer Printing Company for continued interest in our printing problems.

To the Heckman Bindery for courtesies in binding.

To all who have helped in any way in achieving success in our efforts in Chester High School.
